ARE PLEASED TO PRESENT THIS DRAMATIC WORK

After the Crash

At the historic MacKenzie Hall,
3277 Sandwich Street
Thursday, February 17th, 2011

A play about the struggle to overcome adversity and find one's place in society. What's unique about this play is that it was created for a very specific audience: Health Care providers, Case Managers and Care Decision Makers.

By weaving together stories from real trauma survivors, their family and health care workers, the play delves into the challenges of ABI with courage, compassion and sensitivity. The response from audiences has been overwhelmingly positive.

This research based professional theatre about Traumatic Brain Injury is 55 minutes long and speaks a million words from all aspects of the health care system.

The evening begins at 6:30 with cocktails and hors d'oeuvres followed by the play at 7:00. Following the play will be time to network and enjoy an abundance of hot and cold hors d'oeuvres .
